

CHOCOLATE COVERED STRAWBERRIES BY STEVE

Chocolate covered strawberries are one of those treats that is easy to make, but OH so delicious. These make great no-hassle deserts for parties, and are the perfect finish to a romantic dinner date. They're also fun to experiment with by adding different accents or decorations. Try out many different flavour combinations and chocolates!

INGREDIENTS:

Large ripe strawberries, cleaned and dried
Unsalted Dark or milk chocolate (we're big fans of LURE chocolate!)
Wooden skewers (remove splinters first)
Baking sheet and parchment paper

METHOD:

- Melt chocolate in microwave or double boiler
- Skewer the strawberries from top to bottom
- Roll each strawberry and cover it in the delicious hot, melted chocolate.
- Cover the baking sheet with parchment paper, and lay the strawberries on top to cool.

Don't worry about a flat spot on the chocolate. Trust us: chocolate covered strawberries disappear pretty fast! Eat when cool- or surprise someone you love!

PRO TIP : You can add additional decorations if you'd like to give your work some extra flare. Try drizzling on some white chocolate for a sweet presentation, or adding a touch of sea-salt. Customize this easy recipe to your heart's content! Bon Appetit!
